

Who has the final authority in interpreting the Constitution?

First ten amendments

Name of the plan that called for states to be represented equally in government.

o State that chose not to take part in the Constitutional Convention

o Required by Congress to override a veto

o This branch deals with the leaders of other nations

o Location in the Constitution one would find the 'Enumerated' powers

o Principle that states that 'no one is above the law'

o These are held by both the state and the national governments

o Presided over the Constitutional Convention

o Article that says 9 states had to ratify the Constitution before it could become law

o Plan that proposed that every five enslaved persons would count as three free persons

o Principle that government powers lies with the people

o Philosopher who came up with the separation of powers

o Article that states specific powers that Congress does and does not have

o Keeps one branch of government from becoming too powerful

o These follow the Preamble to the US Constitution and explain how government should work o Group of people named by each state legislature to select the President and Vice President

o According to the rules of Constitutional Convention, how many states had to have delegates present for meetings to be held?

o Two steps in the process to create an amendment

o City where the Constitutional Convention took place

o Oldest delegate at the Constitutional Convention

o Those that did not approve of the new Constitution being written in Philadelphia

o Kept a notebook of daily events at the Constitutional Convention

◦ Was in Paris at the time of the Constitutional Convention, but had written the Declaration

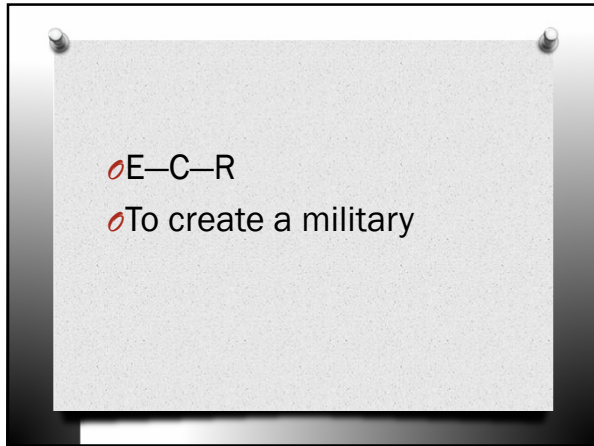

◦ Delegate from Virginia who opposed the new Constitution and did not attend the Convention

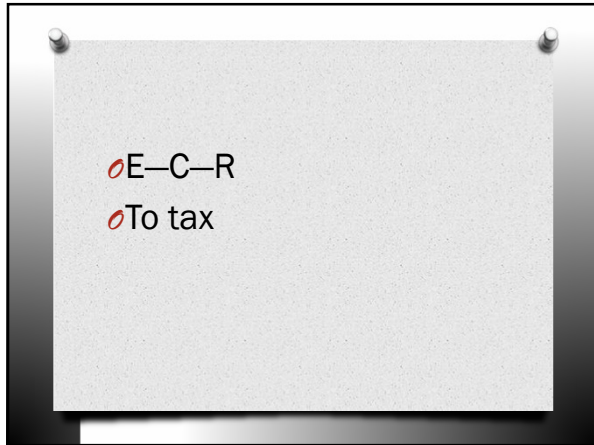

◦ Opening section of the Constitution

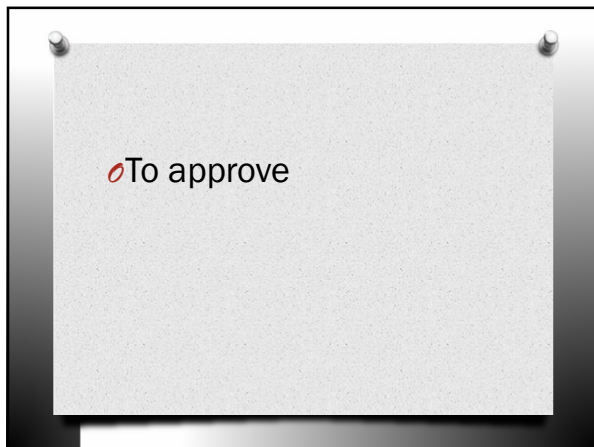

o Article that provides for an executive branch o Allows Congress to exercise implied powers

o E-C-R
o Set up public schools

o Supreme Court case that created the power of Judicial Review

o E-C-R
o To conduct elections

o E-C-R
o To coin money

o Created the Great, or Connecticut, Compromise at the Constitutional Convention

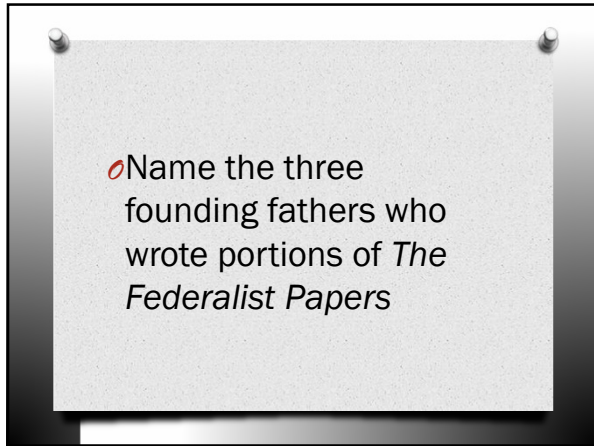

o Branch that must approve of treaties

o Branch that can declare a law unconstitutional

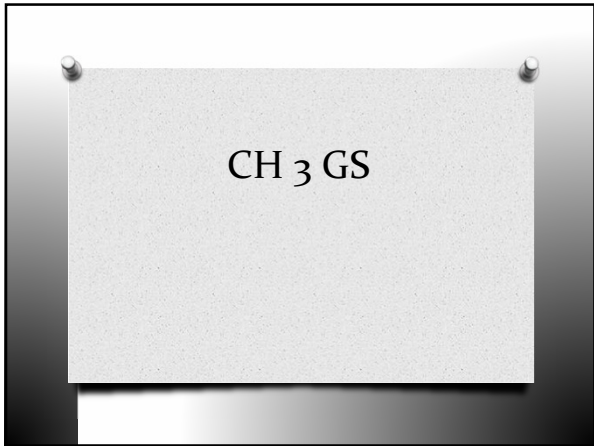

o Branch that can veto a bill

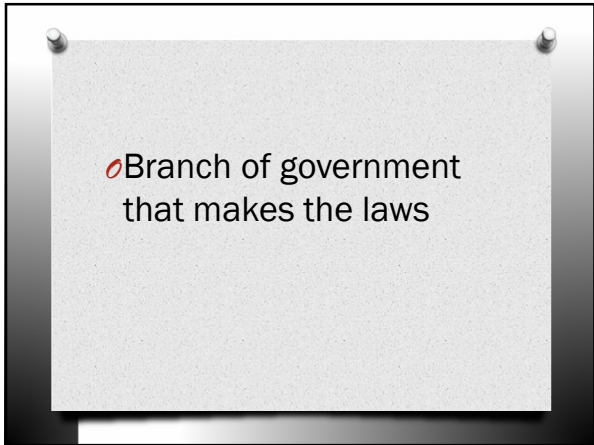

o Year in which the slave trade was to cease

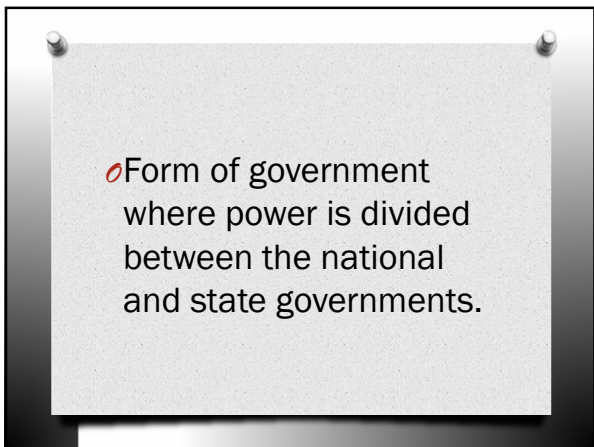

o Youngest of the delegates at the Constitutional Convention

Name the three founding fathers who wrote portions of The Federalist Papers

Who has the final authority in interpreting the Constitution?

First ten amendments

Name of the plan that called for states to be represented equally in government.

o State that chose not to take part in the Constitutional Convention

o Required by Congress to override a veto

o This branch deals with the leaders of other nations

o Location in the Constitution one would find the 'Enumerated' powers

o Principle that states that 'no one is above the law'

o These are held by both the state and the national governments

o Presided over the Constitutional Convention

o Article that says 9 states had to ratify the Constitution before it could become law

o Plan that proposed that every five enslaved persons would count as three free persons

o Principle that government powers lies with the people

o Philosopher who came up with the separation of powers

o Article that states specific powers that Congress does and does not have

o Keeps one branch of government from becoming too powerful

o These follow the Preamble to the US Constitution and explain how government should work

o Group of people named by each state legislature to select the President and Vice President

o According to the rules of Constitutional Convention, how many states had to have delegates present for meetings to be held?

o Two steps in the process to create an amendment

o City where the Constitutional Convention took place

o Oldest delegate at the Constitutional Convention

o Those that did not approve of the new Constitution being written in Philadelphia

o Kept a notebook of daily events at the Constitutional Convention

◦ Was in Paris at the time of the Constitutional Convention, but had written the Declaration

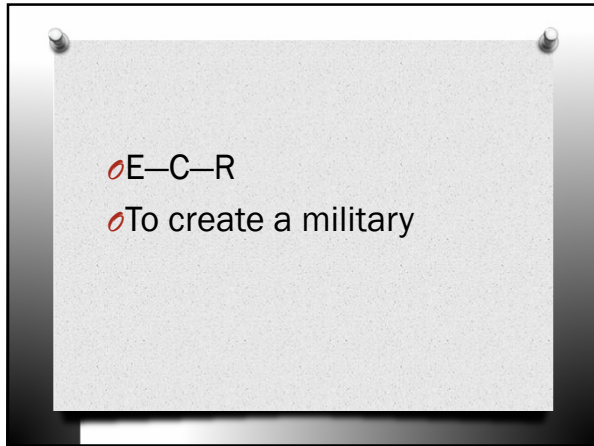

◦ Delegate from Virginia who opposed the new Constitution and did not attend the Convention

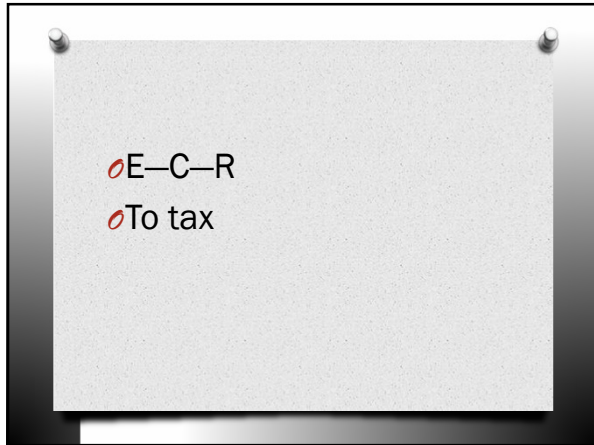

◦ Opening section of the Constitution

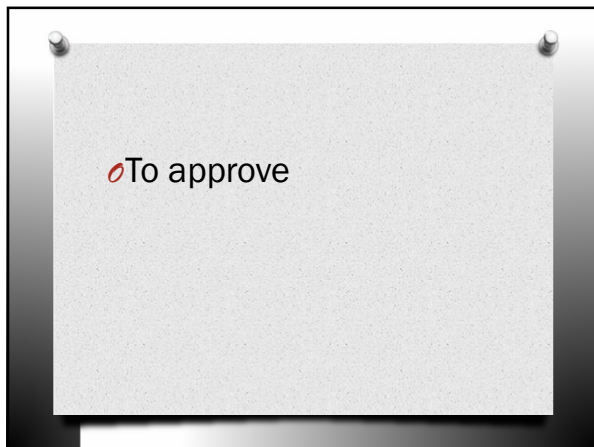

Article that provides for an executive branch

Allows Congress to exercise implied powers

E-C-R
Set up public schools

o Supreme Court case that created the power of Judicial Review

o E-C-R
o To conduct elections

o E-C-R
o To coin money

o Created the Great, or Connecticut, Compromise at the Constitutional Convention

o Branch that must approve of treaties

o Branch that can declare a law unconstitutional

o Branch that can veto a bill

o Year in which the slave trade was to cease

o Youngest of the delegates at the Constitutional Convention

