

Hickman County High School

Global Studies Syllabus

Instructor Kent W Green

Phone 270-653-4044

Room 9

E-mail Kent.Green@Hickman.kyschools.us

Course Description:

Global Studies is designed as a course which heavily emphasizes the creation of our government, the role that citizens play in a civil society, and how the government operates at different levels. The course also examines both national and world geography, as well as a study of economics and the American economic system.

Classroom Rules: Policies in HCHS Student Code of Conduct/Handbook will be enforced with emphasis on the following:

1. Be prepared.
2. Be on time and in seat.
3. Be ready to learn.
4. Be respectful to:
 - a. Yourself
 - b. Others
 - c. Property
5. No use of cell phones, tablets, music players, or other devices during class.
6. Students should not have gum, candy, food, or carbonated drinks.
7. Stay in your seat during class.
8. 10-10 Rule
9. Remain at Level 0 or Level 1 during class time.
10. No throwing objects.

Behavior Policies:

For minor classroom disturbances:

1st: Warning

2nd: Parental Contact and Break Detention

3rd: Office Referral

Grading Policy and Scale:

A: 90-100

B: 80-89

C: 70-79

D: 65-69

F: 00-64

Tentative Schedule of Topics/Units

Month	Topic	Month	Topic
August	Foundations of Government	January	Economic Systems
September	Rights and Responsibilities The Constitution	February	Supply and Demand
October	The Federal Government	March	The American Economy
November	National, State, and Local Elections	April	National and World Geography
December	The Citizen and Government	May	National and World Geography

2015-2016

Contents of this syllabus may be changed at the discretion of the individual instructor. This is not a legally binding document.